Every attempt has been made to contact holders of copyright for the photographs used in this atlas. Where the publishers have not heard from them at the time of going to press or where, in the absence of complete information, it has not been possible to identify the sources of materials used, they would be glad to hear from the copyright holders concerned to enable them to make appropriate acknowledgement in future editions of this atlas.

Notes: 1) The population figures of India are based on Census of India, 2011.

2) The area and population of Telangana state include the seven mandals of Khammam district which have been transferred to Andhra Pradesh by a constitution amendment under the Andhra Pradesh Reorganisation (Amendment) Act, 2014.

3) The statistical data of former state Jammu and Kashmir for various themes in this atlas includes that of Union Territories of Jammu and Kashmir and Ladakh, unless otherwise specified.

The following are applicable for the maps in this atlas:

The responsibility for the correctness of the internal details rests with the publisher.

The territorial waters of India extend into the sea to a distance of twelve nautical miles measured from the appropriate base line.

The administrative headquarters of Chandigarh, Haryana and Punjab are at Chandigarh.

The interstate boundaries amongst Arunachal Pradesh, Assam and Meghalaya shown in these maps are as interpreted from the "North Eastern Areas (Reorganisation) Act, 1971," but have yet to be verified.

The external boundaries and coastlines of India agree with the Record/Master Copy certified by the Survey of India vide their letter No.
T.B. 908/62-A-3/A-1 dated 03 October 2020.

The state boundaries between Uttarakhand & Uttar Pradesh, Bihar & Jharkhand, Chhattisgarh & Madhya Pradesh have not been verified by the governments concerned.

The spellings of names in these maps have been taken from various sources.
